5 Teaching and content

The objective of the module is to provide a general understanding of different types of organisation and approaches with focus on "Social Entrepreneurship" and "Family Firms". Impact Entrepreneurship refers to the practice of combining innovation, opportunity and resourcefulness to address some of our most challenging social, economic and environmental problems.

The objective of the module is to provide a general understanding of the social entrepreneurship and the different types of organisation and approaches. Social entrepreneurship refers to the practice of combining innovation, opportunity and resourcefulness to address some of our most challenging social, economic and environmental problems. The course will examine the evolution of the practice of entrepreneurship that focuses on transforming systems and practices that affect positively communities and ecosystems. The course places an emphasis on the role of social entrepreneurship as a new strategic space, where products and services innovation and market-based mechanisms are leveraged to create a positive impact, which is increasingly seen as a powerful alternative to traditional social policy, state and development interventions.

Leading social entrepreneurs and others in the supporting ecosystem will participate in the course, sharing insights and experiences on the issues examined. The course will draw upon lectures, case studies (live and documented), and group work.
